Alexandria Annals.

Thomas Channey, a young lad living on Fairfax street, near Gibbons, fell while playing on Sunday near his home and broke his left arm......
The remains of the Confederate dead have been removed from the Soldiers' cemetery to the large grave prepared for them in Christ church yard.
......The annual banquet of the old students of St. John's academy will come off to-night at Steuernagel's restaurant......Mr. A. Schofield, formerly a member of the city council, but now of Zanesville, Ohio, has been on a visit here to his family, but left yesterday for his new home......
The funeral of Mr. Joseph Burns, of this city, who fell from a telegraph pole and died from the effects, took place from St. Mary's church yesterday afternoon......The Catholic Beneficial society have elected the following officers: President, M. B. Harlow; first vice-president, John Donnelly; second vice-president, Lawrence Bayne; secretary, Orlando Wood; bookkeeper, R. M. Latham; treasurer, Michael Smith; chaplain, Rev. A. P. Keating; doorkeeper, John T. Hill; D. D., John J. Walsh; marshal, P. F. Gorman; assistants, H. Herbner, James Brannan, Michael Creagan; standard bearers, Martin Lawler, C. W. Greenwood and Patrick Bayne......
Sovereign Grand Commander J. A. Jackson, of the Supreme Council of Colored Masons of the southern and western districts, assisted by the grand secretary, F. C. Renells, installed the following officers of Perfection lodge, in this city, last week: T. P. G. M., R. H. Syles; E. S. G. W., David Jones; E. J. G. W., Moses Moxley; grand secretary, S. C. Dundas; G. T., H. S. King; G. O., J. McK. Ware; G. A., William Clagett; G. C. G., Robert Smith; G. T., James Watson......A meeting of the Re-adjusters of this city will be held one night this week, for the purpose of getting an expression of their preferences in regard to a suitable candidate for corporation judge, to be elected by the legislature as soon as it meets.